

Tours Exclusively for Groups:

Domino Sugar Refinery – 2 hours

7417 N Peters St., Arabi, LA 70032 | 504-278-4242

Groups get an inside look at how sugar is refined from its raw arrival via the Mississippi River to the state of the art packaging process on a personally guided tour led by day to day staff with a unique perspective on operations. Watch a video and hear the history of Domino Sugar Refining in St. Bernard for over 100 years including hurricane Katrina recovery. This tour is available on a limited basis through the Office of Tourism.

Domino Sugar Refinery tours are free of charge, and must be combined with lunch in St. Bernard Parish which can be arranged by the Office of Tourism.

Docville Farm – 1 hour

5124 E St Bernard Hwy., Violet, LA 70092 | 504-279-6559

Group tours are available of the overseer's house on this 700 acre farm named after Dr. Meraux, one of the largest landowners in St. Bernard's history. The home is filled with family antiques and artifacts including many that were collected during Dr. Meraux's travels.

The barn is available for group meals and private functions. Local catering of all types is available and can be arranged by the Office of Tourism.

Los Islenos Museum & Village – 1-2.5 hours

1357 Bayou Rd. St. Bernard, LA 70085 | 504-277-4681

Experience Louisiana's Spanish heritage at the last vestige of Spanish colonial Louisiana. Tours of the museum and village complex are led by descendants of the original Canary Island settlers from 1778.

In addition to the tour, groups can enhance their visit with a traditional Spanish lunch, a cooking demonstration, crafting demonstrations, and hunting and trapping demonstrations.

Chalmette Battlefield National Park – 1 hour
8606 West St. Bernard Highway Chalmette, LA 70043 | 504-281-0510

Ranger chats are available, free of charge, for groups by appointment at the site of the Battle of New Orleans, the last major battle of the War of 1812.

Group rates are available for riverboat cruises on the Creole Queen which departs daily from the French Quarter, docks and the battlefield for a ranger chat, and sails back to the French Quarter.
